

Tom Valenta

Title: Director of Information Services

Education:

Tom is a graduate of Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin with a bachelor's degree in Accounting and an emphasis in Management Information Systems. He also holds a master's degree in Business Administration from Marquette.

Responsibilities:

Tom is responsible for the information and telecommunication systems utilized throughout BayCare Clinic. This includes the support and maintenance of all clinical, financial, internet, intranet and database systems.

Experience:

Tom has worked in the healthcare information systems field since 1996 which includes both clinic and hospital settings. Tom's experience also includes working in the nuclear industry supporting the computer systems at Point Beach Nuclear Plant. Tom is an active member of the Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society (HIMSS) and is currently Past-President of the Wisconsin Dairyland Chapter of HIMSS. He also serves on the planning committee for the annual HIMSS Midwest Technology conference. Tom is an Emergency Medical Technician and has served as Director of Operations for a local volunteer rescue squad.

